3 BookMarx, 325 E. Walnut St., Ste. 101, presents February Featured Artist Amber Darding and her show The Housewives. "This series is a playful response to the type of overt sexism expressed in mid-century advertisements. These watercolors are not to showcase the monstrous or duplicitous nature of women, but expand on the concept that not everything is as it appears. To me they say that there is more to a woman than a pretty face; and that it is not only ignorant to underestimate them, but to do so could also be dangerous." www.facebook.com/bookmarx-books

4 At The Creamery Arts Center, 411 N. Sherman Parkway, love is in the air – and on the walls – with the 7th annual Hearts for the Arts: I See Red art exhibition and silent auction.
