8 Fresh Gallery, 400 W. Walnut, presents Featured Artists Linda Passeri and Alan O'Neal. Linda Passeri is one of Fresh Gallery's three-dimensional artists. Her works are hand formed and carved ceramic sculptures. She is best known for her Steampunk Creatures, such as cats and birds. She adds metal, glass and found objects to her pieces to add character and personality. ... She also enjoys testing the limits of what she can do with clay and working straight out of her imagination, taking the piece from her mind to her hands. Alan O'Neal is a retired engineer. He started photography before he can remember, and some of the works offered for sale were taken nearly 25 years ago. O'Neal grew up in the country, still lives in the country, and has a fondness for nature. All of these things have an influence on the type of pictures he takes. In 2004, O'Neal started doing Digital Art. His process is taking a photograph and creating an alternate image out of it. "My computer and mouse are my pallet and paintbrush," he says. www.freshgallery.org (417) 862-9300 Open 11 a.m.-6 p.m. T-Sat, 11 a.m.-10 p.m. during Art Walk
