Doreen is a participant of Abilities First-Next Steps. She is a talented artist who has Autism Spectrum Disorder. She prefers to work mainly with soft pastels and occasionally hard pastel chalk. B Birds Eye Tattoo & Art Gallery, 300 W. McDaniel, is proud to present Featured Artist Clark Medley debuting on Second Saturday in June. "I have worked on my craft since the 80s: always developing my voice as an artist," Medley said. His work in cipher/cryptic language takes an abstract form. "The thing I love most is watching people who are viewing my work. They seem to realize my work is a puzzle and try to figure it out. The moment when they realize I've made up my own language seems to pull them in and connect." (417) 771 5487. Open 12-9 p.m. T-Sat

C BookMarx, 325 E. Walnut St., Ste. 101, presents Featured Artist Kathryn Zerbe and her show titled Postal Quilts and Tea Stain, which consists of stitched paper collages by "combining historic quilt designs and vintage stamps. The images are thematic, oftentimes resulting in visual puns and irony. I've also been working with stained and recycled papers in assemblages combining fibers and Greek calligraphy." E Fresh Gallery, 400 W. Walnut, presents Featured Artists Becky Lewis Smith and Wesley Horton.

Becky Lewis Smith: Abstract expressionism is a way for me to convey the energy, rhythm, mood, and movement of the life I see and feel all around me. ... Recent themes of my work include Figures, Delta Cotton, Metamorphosis and Just Desserts. I work primarily in oils, pastels, charcoal, and mixed media.

Wesley Horton: I'm a creator of art, primarily pottery. With clay, I feel there is no other medium closer in connection to the earth. In ceramics, mystery is exhibited in every piece, from designing a concept to creating a piece and firing it; multiple variables create unexpected results.
